Dear Ester and Joshua:

It was exceedingly nice to see you two again at Woods Hole.

It was a sudden decision to come back last Saturday. So I disappeared without saying good bye to you. This note will extend my apology and I hope that you may excuse me.

According to my schedule, I shall be here till mid of December and then go home, Stanford University. If you by chance come this way, please do stop & drop in to see me.

By the way, I like to tell you personally that I am interested in the job you described in Zoology of your university. ^{receiving} If any thing needs to be done, I would appreciate your suggestions.

With my best wishes & regards

Sincerely yours

M. C. Niu
